Memorandum

TO : Director, FBI (109-12-210)

DATE: 11/30/62

FROM : Legat, Rio de Janeiro (109-110) (P)

SUBJECT: FOREIGN POLITICAL MATTERS - CUBA IS - CUBA

Enclosed herewith are the original and eight copies of a letterhead memorandum and an informant's evaluation memorandum, respectively, both dated 11/30/62 in captioned matter.

PCS [redacted] referred to in the letterhead memorandum is [redacted] who supplied this information to ALA [redacted]

The letterhead memorandum is being classified "confidential" since it contains information, the disclosure of which to unauthorized persons might jeopardize informant's identity to the detriment of the United States' interests.

No local dissemination has been made of the enclosed memorandum since the appropriate Embassy officials in Brazil, Argentina, and Uruguay are aware of the information contained therein.

Legat feels that the opinion of [redacted], as contained in the last paragraph of the attached letterhead memorandum, is an accurate analysis of the potential which the U. S. has for exploiting the Cuban issue in Latin American countries. At the same time, Legat believes that no permanent solution will be found for the Cuban situation in the countries of Brazil, Argentina and Uruguay as long as the Castro regime continues to exist.

Re: FOREIGN POLITICAL MATTERS - CUBA

On November 30, 1962, [redacted] advised that overshadowing other developments with regard to the Cuban situation are the continuing repercussions of the Russian backdown during the Cuban crisis in late October and early November, 1962. There was considerable loss of prestige, not only for the Cuban regime, but for the Communist Parties in Argentina, Brazil, and Uruguay and, in addition, for the anti-United States nationalist forces who supported Castro. b2 b7D

The loss of prestige suffered by the Cuban regime stems chiefly from the manner in which Castro was completely ignored by both the United States and Russia with regard to the main points around which negotiations revolved, i. e., removal of Russian missiles and the bombers from Cuba. The false claims to "autodetermination" and "sovereignty" of the Cuban people which had been cornerstones among the propaganda weapons used by the Cubans, Communists, and nationalists in winning sympathizers and supporters and which were exposed as false by these negotiations served to disillusion many who had been taken in by them.

Communist Parties in the three countries are still attempting to recover from the impact of the Russian defeat in this situation, and their efforts to turn it into victory by presenting the Russian removal of its missiles and bombers as statesmanship which saved world peace have not proven very convincing.

Nationalist groups and their leaders who have been supporting Castro were similarly placed on the spot. A leading example was Governor Leonel Brizola of the State of Rio Grande do Sul, Brazil, a violently anti-United States nationalist who, in many instances, including the Cuban situation, has followed the Communist Party line. Immediately following U. S. charges that missile bases had been established by the Russians, Brizola attempted to discredit these charges and supported the Cuban regime. When the Russians admitted to having missiles in Cuba, Brizola publicly condemned them for having "used Cuba as a mere cold war tool."

With further regard to Brizola's reaction, the "Brazil Herald," English language newspaper of Rio de Janeiro, in its edition of October 31, 1962, quoted him as adding the following to the above comment:

"Khrushchev has shown his contempt for Cuban self-determination. He has dishonored and hurt the revolution which aroused so many hopes in Latin America. What he did must be repelled by all nationalists. Our fight is against spoliation of our peoples and for preservation of their sovereignty. It does not matter whether spoliation is committed by Americans or Russians."

In the opinion of [REDACTED] if the United States follows through firmly on the Cuban question, the Cuban-Russian defeat will become consolidated in the minds of Latin Americans, but if the United States resorts to a policy of vacillation and uncertainty and permit the rehabilitation of Castro and his regime to occur, the gains made will be lost. b2 b7D

In addition Newark is maintaining close liaison with the Newark, Hoboken, West New York and Union City, New Jersey Police Departments. These cities are the places of residence of most of the Cubans in New Jersey.

The Newark Office now has four agents assigned full time to Cuban matters and related investigations including activities of the FPCC. In addition, other agents are assigned Cuban cases, including Cuban informants, which would total one additional man, making a total of five agents.

[redacted] On December 5, 1962, furnished a letter, written in Spanish, which he had recently received from Havana, Cuba, dated November 27, 1962. [redacted] advised that this letter was written by an individual who signed himself as [redacted] but this is not the correct name of the writer. [redacted] advised that he knew the author of this letter personally and stated that the author of the letter was a man who could be trusted, and stated that the author of the letter, in his opinion, was stating facts as he saw them. [redacted] advised on December 5, 1962, that, for reasons of security, he did not wish to disclose the name of the author of this letter. b7C

A transcription of the letter furnished by [redacted] which he received from Havana, Cuba, dated November 27, 1962, reads as follows:

"Havana, Nov. 27, 1962"

"Dear friend:

"I found out from [redacted] who telephoned you that you have received my news and that orders have been issued. b7C

CUBI
"I am taking advantage of the fact that correspondence has been resumed to tell you several truths that you probably have not heard. A few days ago I went to Oriente and went as far as Guantanamo and you are not capable of imagining the amount of anti-Communist uprisings in that zone since in order to go through the Monte Ruz mountains, one needs a counterrevolutionary pass. In the Bueysito mine on the hilly mountain zone, there are also anti-Communist militia-men rebelled; also in the Del Fio Mines, there are some caves where they are transporting little boxes which the people believe to be atomic bombs of a very small size, but capable of great destruction. In the Cuevas del Diablo in Pinar del Rio, they are working diligently day and night introducing some trailers covered with canvas. No one knows what is inside of them. According to information, they are anti-ship and anti-aircraft missiles which can also be used for a landing. In the Las Villas Province, in the Itabe Farm, 27 kms. from Sagua to the side of the road, or that is, 3 kms. from same, which is adjacent to the Socorro Farm 3 kms. from Cifuentes, they are building something big, hidden in a kind of tunnel 40' wide by 200 to 300' long, with a concrete fence made in Russia. These fences are placed on the ground, fused and then, placed upright. They plant corn around it and the entrances are next to a mountain which leads out to a plateau adjacent to a hill. In the Purio Central, in the La Cantera Mountains, they are building something similar between Calabazar de Sagua and Encrucijada and that area is still full of Russians. I do not know what the O.A.S. is waiting for to end the Castroite Communists', Soviet's and Chinese's lies, which have been going on for a great many years. I can assure you that there are missile bases in Cuba and that they are in inaccessible areas. They are only accessible to the Russians and their employees. Mikoyan made a trip to Oriente in a helicopter to inspect the bases. I want the whole world to know that they are contacting Mexican, Haitian and other Latin American fishermen here in Cuba. They are planning to transport arms for the Revolution in the New World and if this is carried out, it would mean the same destruction that we are enduring in Cuba. According to what I have been told, the 1015 and 1021 airplanes have a platform to carry bombs or small missiles, but with nuclear radioaction. The Communists here are very happy because Nikita Krushchev requested 30 days from Kennedy to take out the U-28 bombers. He will then have time in those thirty days to advance the defensive and offensive constructions, while the Americans believe Nikita's promise of taking the missiles out of Cuba without it being true. According to the information we have, 86 missiles entered Cuba with trailers covered with canvas approximately 40 to 50' long and only 42 have been taken out to date. It is just like the Russians who came here. More than half are still here. They are building a tunnel to protect the Rancho Boyeros Airport beginning at the Nobo Cantera near Avenue 100 in Marianao and going up to the Belen elevations where Salas Canizares used to live. Tractors and dynamite drills are working there 24 hours a day. In El Mariel there is a tunnel which goes from the Naval School to Caimito.

Foreign Political Matters-Cuba;
Military and Naval Matters-Cuba

"Well, I think that the Cubans are all going to die. The Cuban anti-Communists who are still here are sick from their nerves. Now, the government has a bullet-proof truck which travels throughout the Island picking up the counterrevolutionaries who have been sentenced to death. Then, they are taken away in the truck and shot. Then, when it is time to bury them, the truck has a drill for drilling wells or planting trees and they dig a hole 10' deep and 24' wide and then, they bury the bodies their heads down. Then, they cover them up with dirt and go over it two or three times with the truck so that the animals won't dig up the bodies.

"Well, my friend, if we are lucky to see each other in Cuba someday, you will understand what I am telling you since this is nothing compared to what you will see then.

"Regards to everyone from your friend whom you know,

P.

"Note: My opinion, whatever use it may have, is that the Americans lost their opportunity to take over Cuba in the last few months of the Eisenhower Administration which was when they took over the sugar refineries from the various firms, Cuban as well as foreign, and also the oil refineries. The Communist roots are firmly planted and embark all of America. That is why I find it difficult to believe that they can be uprooted in such little time. I hope that you will send this to Washington or wherever you think it might be useful to the democratic governments."

[redacted] advised she is a citizen of Cuba and resident alien of the United States. She has been in the United States over two years and has been employed since April, 1961, as an Escort Interpreter in the Division of Language Service, United States Department of State. b7C

[redacted] was in the home of [redacted] on [redacted] on December 3, 1962, when [redacted] Havana, Cuba, came to visit his girl friend, [redacted] related that he did not want to discuss Cuba directly with United States Officials, newspaper men, or Cuban groups due to personal fear for his life and other diplomats assigned to Cuba. [redacted] did not furnish the sources of his information. He furnished the following information to [redacted] with the understanding that it would be relayed to a United States official: CUBA F&H

[redacted] left Cuba about November 28, 1962, for Mexico, to obtain a renewal of his United States visa, [redacted], and to see his girl friend in Miami, Florida. He arrived in Miami November 30, 1962, and departed for Cuba via Mexico December 4 or 5, 1962, by air.

[redacted] feels that the missiles Russia took out of Cuba were very late models and that the United States did not have that type of missile. He believes

Re: FOREIGN POLITICAL MATTERS -
CUBA, CHILE

Russia did not want to risk having the United States find the missiles in Cuba in the event the United States invaded Cuba. He believes Russia has taken out only some of the missiles that they brought into Cuba inasmuch as many ships arrived and very few ships departed with missiles.

[REDACTED] stated the dismantling of the missile bases in Cuba apparently was going on, but at the same time he believed Russia is reactivating other bases in Cuba which cannot be seen. He also stated that Russia has many weapons in Cuba and that missiles are only a part of the armaments there. b7C

As to the Russian bombers in Cuba, [REDACTED] stated when he left Cuba the bombers were still there and everybody in Cuba knew about them. He felt the bombers might be taken out but that they would not make a great difference inasmuch as arrangements were being made to have Russian TU 114s land in Cuba. He heard, also, that Russia is building an airport in Kenagra (phonetic), Guinea. [REDACTED] believes Russia will move back into Cuba with everything they formerly had when airports in Guinea and Cuba are ready.

[REDACTED] stated that the Cuban crisis is referred to in Cuba as the "Kennedy War"; also, that the people heard the blockade speech of President John F. Kennedy all over the Island and were expecting something after the speech. The speech made a big impression. Then the Cuban Government took repressive action and conditions were terrible - as bad as the repression at the time of the Bay of Pigs invasion.

[REDACTED] believes that the people of Cuba feel that Cuba has been "negotiated" and that they will, in the future, not believe any promises of the United States.

Re: FOREIGN POLITICAL MATTERS -
CUBA, CHILE

[REDACTED] stated that the people of Cuba did not hear that the Russian Official Mikoyan was in Cuba until the day of his departure. Nothing was published in Cuba about his visit to that country. b7C

6. The Political Situation in Cuba

There are further straws in the wind suggesting that something may be brewing within the Cuban leadership, possibly a major political decision.

On 17 December, the Havana newspaper Revolucion carried the full text of the 15 December Peiping People's Daily editorial, the most explicitly anti-Soviet statement yet published in Communist China. In the Sino-Soviet bloc, only North Korean and Albanian papers have reprinted the Chinese statement. It almost certainly could not have been reprinted in Havana without Fidel Castro's approval. A Western observer in Havana has commented that Revolucion reflected Castro's views more faithfully during the recent crisis than any other Havana daily.

Castro himself has been pointedly absent from public functions since Mikoyan's departure on 25 November. He has not been out of the limelight for so long a period since last February and March during the maneuvering that led up to the purge of veteran Communist Anibal Escalante, and has not made a public speech since 1 November. b1, b3

FOREIGN POLITICAL MATTERS

He pointed out he served under the Castro forces because he felt at that time this was the most expedient means of overthrowing the Batista regime which most Cubans found unbearable at that time.

In addition to his own activities he stated that all of the members of his family supported Castro in the revolution against the Batista government.

He said that when Castro initially came to power the social and economic conditions of the Cuban people were an improvement over the conditions existing under Batista; however, he pointed out that subsequently Castro, through his subsequent activities, proved to be a Communist and a worst dictator than Batista. He said that the idea of real freedom for the Cuban people under Castro never, in fact, materialized.

Because of Castro's betrayal of the Cuban people anti-Castro guerrilla forces are operating in Cuba. He identified [redacted] and [redacted] as members of the anti-Castro guerrilla forces presently in the hills of Cuba. b7C

He said that with contacts through his relatives he has been told that up to mid-November, 1962 missile bases were being maintained at Antilla, Cuba and that approximately 5,000 Russians were quartered near the U. S. Naval Base at Guantanamo Bay, Cuba. He also learned from his relatives in Cuba that the Soviet military mission in Cuba was training Congolese troops in the hills of Cuba for guerrilla warfare.

He said that with regard to the Soviet missiles in Cuba he was told in mid-November, 1962 that some of the missiles have been returned to the Soviet Union by Soviet ships; however, he was also told that some of these Soviet missiles are still in Cuba and possibly stored in underground missile bases which have been constructed in the hills to avoid detection by aerial photography.

FOREIGN POLITICAL MATTERS

He pointed out that also in mid-November, 1962 he had been told that there was tight security existing at Camaiguay, Cuba and he felt, from his information, that this area was an airport of military significance, as he was told that large Russian planes were seen landing and taking off in that approximate area. He had also been advised that the installation at Camaiguay was guarded by Soviet troops and that no one was allowed in the immediate area.

He pointed out that he left Cuba as a stowaway to come to the United States in order to offer his services to anti-Castro groups forming in this country with the hope that in some way he may aid in the eventual overthrow of the Castro regime.

On January 3, 1963 [REDACTED]

INS, Providence, Rhode Island, advised that [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] the Immigration and Nationality Act and will reside in care of [REDACTED]

On January 3, 1963 United States Attorney Raymond J. Pettine, Providence, Rhode Island, declined to prosecute [REDACTED] as [REDACTED] since, in his opinion, there is nothing subversive in this person's background and the purpose for which he came to the United States was to find refuge until freedom is restored to his country.

Re: FOREIGN POLITICAL MATTERS - CUBA

On January 4, 1963, a source who is familiar with certain diplomatic operations of the Cuban revolutionary government and who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that during the first part of January, 1963, the Cuban Embassy at Montevideo, Uruguay, made certain information available to Dr. RAUL ROA GARCIA, Minister of Foreign Relations (MINREX), Havana, Cuba, concerning observations with reference to the arrest of "alleged Cuban agents" active in the United States.

The foregoing communication was accompanied by 16 newspaper clippings in the English and Spanish languages, apparently obtained from Uruguayan and Argentine publications. These newspaper clippings concerned the arrest of Cuban diplomat ROBERTO SANTIESTEBAN in New York during the early part of November, 1962, on the charge of "acting as a Cuban agent in the United States without having registered as such with the United States Department of Justice." These articles also refer to two other individuals who were arrested in connection with the same offense, but these other individuals had not entered the United States as representatives of the Cuban revolutionary government.

Re: FOREIGN POLITICAL MATTERS - CUBA

The Cuban Embassy in Montevideo, Uruguay, pointed out to Dr. ROA that during October, 1962, the Cuban Ambassador in Montevideo had directed a communication to Dr. ROA alerting him as to the reaction of the United States Federal and local authorities towards individuals in the United States who enjoy diplomatic immunity.

In the communication of January, 1963, the Cuban Ambassador explained to Dr. ROA that it was obvious that the case of the Cuban diplomat "RSC" was mishandled by MINREX and that he was placed into contact with "other Cubans who were reliable and willing to assist the cause of the Cuban revolution in the United States without properly checking with the United States State Department to determine whether his credentials had actually been accepted by the State Department."

The Cuban Ambassador stated that he continues to insist that his observations regarding the United States' attitude towards Cuban diplomats who have actually been granted diplomatic immunity is correct and, as proof, he pointed out that one of the Cuban diplomats who was also involved in the "RSC" matter was [REDACTED] and his [REDACTED], who were not arrested, but were requested to leave the United States within 48 hours. b7C

The Cuban Ambassador stated that the cooperation of Cubans in the United States with the Cuban revolutionary government should be treated with the greatest respect and that in the future utmost effort must be put forth to avoid jeopardizing valuable contacts of the Cuban revolutionary government in the United States.

Re: FOREIGN POLITICAL MATTERS - CUBA

The Cuban Ambassador also stated that the American authorities at times appear to be slow to act, but once they do, it is obvious that they know what they are doing and that there has been an appropriate check made before any detentions are made in order to avoid the arrest of diplomats who actually enjoy diplomatic immunity.

Sitrep for fortnight ending December 26.

We seem to be coming out of the post-crisis doldrums described in my Sitrep 764 at any rate temporarily. This can be accounted for by

- (i) Christmas celebrations.
  - (ii) Preparations for the January 2 military parade.
  - (iii) Exchange of invasion prisoners for food and medicines.
  - (iv) The re-emergence of Fidel Castro as a colorful leader personally handling all negotiations and arrangements connected with the prisoner operation.
2. The emphasis on Christmas was more "feastive" than "religious" but no visible attempt was made to discourage religious practice. Extra food rations, some toys in the shops, illumination of buildings, Christmas trees and dances at hotels and Workers' Clubs showed that the authorities are still concerned to offset the growing Socialist dreariness and to satisfy if possible the Cubans' natural love of gaiety.
3. All indications continue to suggest that preparations are being made for a military display on January 2 even more impressive than last year. Castro's five points have re-emerged and look like being the central theme. Delegates from Socialist countries are already here. Soviet astronaut Popovitch is also expected as is our Service Attache, resident in Caracas.
4. The complicated and delicate operation of exchange of prisoners for medicine and food has gone remarkably smoothly due largely I think to the personalities of Castro and Bonnavi who seem to have established a relationship of mutual trust. The operation is generally viewed here as a boost to Castro's prestige (he does this kind of thing tirelessly, efficiently and in grand manner) and a highly satisfactory economic arrangement for Cuba. The human gesture of allowing Cuban families to leave the country and unite with prisoners in Miami, the record speed of unloading as an example of Socialist efficiency, the red-carpet treatment of United States captain and crew have all been given maximum publicity.
5. The whole operation and particularly the apparent relaxation of economic squeeze has given rise to some speculation here as to whether this is the first step in a softening of Cuban/United States relations. On the evidence so far available I would not myself regard it as necessarily more significant than an urgent need on the Cuban side for medicines and an equally urgent need on the American side to clear their conscience for their part in the invasion fiasco.

CUBAN REGIME INTERNAL SPIN

Political Matters - Cuba

1. CAN: NEITHER CONFIRM NOR DENY REPORT OF VIOLENT ARGUMENT AMONG TOP CUBAN LEADERSHIP. RELIABLE INFO IS HARD TO COME BY, AND ONE HAS CONSTANTLY TO RESIST TEMPTATION OF ACCEPTING RUMOURS AS FACT. IT SEEMS CLEAR HOWEVER, THAT CRISIS WAS A MAJOR PSYCHOLOGICAL SHOCK TO CUBAN LEADERSHIP, SERIOUSLY WEAKENED THEIR CONFIDENCE IN USSR AND SET IN TRAIN A PROCESS OF RE-THINKING WHICH IS STILL GOING ON.

2. AS TIME PASSES AND REGIME REMAINS STILL IN POWER, IT BECOMES INCREASINGLY LESS LIKELY THERE WILL BE AN OPEN SPLIT AMONG CUBAN LEADERS AT THIS TIME OR ANY VIOLENT CHANGE IN POLICY. A CONTINUANCE OF STATUS QUO DOES NOT RPT NOT EXCLUDE STRONG POLICY DIFFERENCES
AMONG CASTRO'S FOLLOWERS, AGGRAVATED BY EXISTING PERSONAL ANIMOSITIES, AND RIVALRIES SUCH AS [REDACTED] AND [REDACTED]

3. THERE ARE THREE PRINCIPLE VIEW POINTS WHICH SEEM TO BE EMERGING.
FIRST FAVOURS VIOLENCE AND INTRANSIGENCE; CUBA MUST PURSUE ITS MESIANIC REVOLUTIONARY VOCATION AND MAKE NO RPT NOT CONCESSION TO QUOTE YAMKE IMPERIALIST-BEAST UNQUOTE OR FOR THAT MATTER TO PEACEFUL COEXISTENCE LINE OF USSR. AS THIS VIEW IS RATHER SIMILAR TO THAT OF CHINESE IT CAN BE LABELLED AS PRO-(CHINESE?). THE SECOND
VIEWPOINT IS VERIFIED ON ABSOLUTE NECESSITY OF MAINTAINING IN GOOD REPAIR ALLIANCE WITH USSR UPON WHICH CUBA IS ECONOMICALLY AS WELL AS POLITICALLY DEPENDENT. DESPITE ANY DISAPPOINTMENTS WHICH MIGHT BE FELT WITH SOVIET LEADERSHIP AND REVOLUTIONARY FERVOUR, CUBA CANNOT RPT NOT ALLOW ITSELF THE LUXURY OF SPITTING IN FACE OF ITS PROVIDERS.
THERE ARE ALSO REVOLUTIONARY CUBANS WHO ARE REPELLED BY CHINESE
COMMUNISTS AND PREFER A LESS FANATICAL VARIETY. THE THIRD VIEWPOINT ENVISAGES A CUBA THAT WOULD NOT RPT NOT OCCUPY A POSITION SO FAR OUT IN LEFT FIELD IN ORDER TO GIVE COUNTRY SOME FLEXIBILITY IN

EAST-WEST RELATION. AT SOME TIME MARXIST-LENINISM WOULD BE DEVELOPED WITHIN A MORE CUBAN FRAMEWORK, PERHAPS ULTIMATELY CREATE A NATIONAL COMMUNIST STATE IN CARIBBEAN. THIS WOULD ENTAIL ARRIVING AT SOME FORM OF TRUCE WITH USA.

IN ANY CASE, A POLICY OF MODERATION IS UNLIKELY TO WIN OUT WITH YOUNG EXTREMISTS WHO ARE IN COMMAND OF THIS COUNTRY OR EVEN WITH CASTRO GIVEN WAY IN WHICH HE HAS MADE ANTI-AMERICANISM AND REVOLUTION IN HEMISPHERE SO MUCH A PART OF HIS REVOLUTION.

4. I DOUBT THAT DIVISION OF OPINION RUNS ALONG PURELY NEW VERSUS OLD COMMUNIST LINES, ALTHOUGH MOST OLD COMMUNISTS WILL FAVOUR VARIATIONS OF SECOND VIEWPOINT. SOME NEW COMMUNISTS INCLUDING FIDEL CASTRO, MAY ENTERTAIN ALL THREE VIEWPOINTS SIMULTANEOUSLY.

5. I WOULD CONSIDER CASTRO'S SILENCE IS IN PART A SIGN THAT HE HAS NOT YET NOT DECIDED ON WHAT COURSE CUBA SHOULD FOLLOW. SEEMS ALSO TO HAVE TAKEN OPPORTUNITY TO ASSURE HIMSELF OF THE ARMY'S SUPPORT. MOST LOCAL OBSERVERS, INCLUDING MYSELF THIS TIME HE HAS POWERS TO IMPOSE HIS VIEWS ON HIS GOVT. THOSE LEADERS WHO ANTICIPATE DIRECTION IN WHICH HE IS MOVING MAY BE EXPECTED TO ENJOY INCREASED INFLUENCE.

6. IN THIS RESPECT, IT RATHER LOOKS AS THOUGH 26TH OF JULY VETERANS, SUCH AS [REDACTED] AND [REDACTED] ARE PREACHING A COURSE OF GREATER VIOLENCE THAN OLD COMMUNISTS WHO FAVOUR A LESS ADVENTUROUS POLICY AND CLOSE LINK WITH USSR; IN THIS WAY THEY ARE TURNING TABLE ON OLD COMMUNISTS WHO IN FIRST YEAR OF REVOLUTION MANAGED UNDER CUTTING POSITION OF MANY JUL 26 FIGURES.

6. The Cuban Revolution's Anniversary Celebration

The central themes of yesterday's anniversary celebration were Cuba's continuing determination to spearhead the spread of Communism in the Western hemisphere and to build up strength to protect the revolution at home.

Fidel Castro's speech, his first public address since 1 November, was devoted in large part to efforts to rebut and ridicule President Kennedy's speech of 29 December in Miami.

Castro also stressed Cuba's role as an example for all the "captive" peoples of Latin America, singling out Venezuela --as other top Cuban leaders have done recently--as one nation where the people are beginning to "awake and struggle."

The speech gave no evidence of any intent on the part of the regime either to modify its ties with the Sino-Soviet bloc or to alter its internal policies significantly. Castro emphasized that Cuba's place would always be "within the Socialist camp." His reference to the "public discrepancies between large forces of the Socialist camp" apparently was an attempt by him both to increase Cuba's prestige within the Socialist camp by urging its unity and to pass off Cuba as the equal of all the other members of the bloc.

ENCLOSURES

There are enclosed herewith ten (10) copies of a letterhead memorandum, dated and captioned as above.

ADMINISTRATIVE

[redacted] advised on 1/2/63 that no information had been received by his department concerning the illegal entry of seven (7) individuals from the Cuban ship "Bahia de Mariel" in November, 1962. [redacted] will continue his efforts to ascertain if any information is available concerning this incident.

[redacted]
In the event the balance of the information furnished by the WFO source is accurate, it is quite possible that these individuals did manage to enter Mexico illegally, since it is possible, through the payment of a few hundred pesos, to arrange such matters, and, also, there are reportedly many pro-CASTRO individuals, some in positions of authority in the port of Veracruz.

Memorandum for Mr. Sullivan
RE: FOREIGN POLITICAL MATTERS - CUBA
109-12-210

Los Angeles and indicated that a group of approximately 40 Nicaraguan revolutionaries had moved arms from Mexico through Honduras into Nicaragua. These arms were reportedly to be used in the event Nicaraguan elections proved favorable to the regime of President Somoza. In this connection, it is to be noted that the 2/5/63 issue of the "Washington Post" indicates that Rene Schick is the new President-elect of Nicaragua. He will take office 5/1/63. Schick was backed by President Somoza of Nicaragua and his brother, who heads the National Guard there.

ECONOMIC CONDITIONS

Cuban people have adequate purchasing power and thus the black market in food is flourishing, with pork selling at the equivalent rate of $3 per pound; chicken at $2 per pound; and turkeys at $40 to $50 each. American cigarettes are $50 per carton and women are wearing shoes made of rope and fabric. According to one Cuban official, the best shoes are being sent to Yugoslavia. The sugar industry is faltering and some mills are being dismantled to provide replacement parts for others.

ATTITUDE OF CUBAN PEOPLE

It is rumored that one million Cubans have applied to leave the country. Personal observation shows 75 per cent of Cubans are against Castro and that the people openly express their opposition on the street. Seventeen of nineteen fishing boats constructed by the Cuban Navy reportedly have disappeared and presumably were used by anti-Castroites fleeing Cuba. The Voice of America programs and other U. S. radio broadcasts are widely followed and are very effective.

MILITARY MATTERS

Informant received reports that suspect military installations are still located on Isle of Pines and at three separate spots in Santa Clara Province, with Soviets being present at each location. Suggestedly, Cubans are not allowed to enter the three sites in Santa Clara Province. The Cuban militia formerly was under civilian jurisdiction but has now been integrated into the military units. Thus, those in the militia are subject to military laws and they are no longer "volunteers." The regular patrol boats used to stop Cubans from fleeing their country have been supplemented by the use of shark boats which normally are manned by Cuban fishermen but which are now manned by loyal militiamen specifically assigned to stopping the flights to freedom. In fact, the shark boats are credited with bringing back more fugitives from Castro than do the regular patrol boats.

OBSERVATIONS:

While nothing spectacular was developed by the informant during his trip to Cuba, it is felt trip was of definite value since it has given us an opportunity to compare observations of a reliable informant with those being received from the Cuban refugees. Basically, his data coincides with information being reported to us and the other agencies, and it appears the informant was quite alert. For example, on the return plane flight from Havana to Mexico, he was able to piece together enough bits of conversation to furnish excellent leads which should allow us to identify a U. S. citizen who apparently had previously traveled illegally to Cuba and was en route back to her U. S. residence under the impression that she had not been detected.

ACTION:

It is believed the Attorney General would be interested in the informant's observations and, if you approve, the attached letter will be directed to him, with copies for the Deputy Attorney General and Assistant Attorney General Yeagley.

Foreign Political Matters - Cuba

On January 17, 1963, [REDACTED], who has furnished reliable information in the past, furnished <sup>eleven of</sup> thirteen photographs which he obtained from the offices of the Fair Play for Cuba Committee (FPCC), 799 Broadway, New York City. The return address on the envelope in which they were mailed indicated they were sent from the offices of the Ministry of the Interior, Havana, Cuba. Accompanying the photographs was an article captioned, "The January 2 Military Parade", which reads as follows:

b7D

"The military parade held on January 2 of this year at the Plaza de la Revolucion in Havana showed the world the high level of organization of the Cuban Armed Forces, leaving no doubt as to their readiness to defend the territorial integrity of the small Caribbean island and to do their share in preserving world peace.

"This parade is held every year as part of the program celebrating the anniversary of the Cuban Revolution. Delegations from sixty-one countries and all continents were greatly impressed by the martial bearing and discipline of the soldiers and sailors, the male and female detachments of the National Revolutionary Militia, and the troops in command of heavy artillery tank units, and powerful ground-to-air and ground-to-water missile "Prime Minister Fidel Castro, Commander-in-Chief of the Revolutionary Armed Forces, and the President of the Republic, Dr. Osvaldo Dorticos, were accompanied on the main stand by hundreds of visitors from foreign lands, among them the fourth Soviet astronaut, Lieutenant Colonel Pavel Popovich.

"Over half a million people thronged the square and neighboring areas to see the parade and hear the guiding words "of the leader of the Revolution, Major Fidel Castro. The parade and speech were broadcast to all of Cuba and the world, using the full facilities of the Cuban radio and television network.

"In his hour-and-a-half address the Prime Minister analyzed different aspects of the revolutionary work taking place in Cuba. He stressed the point that the main guarantee of the consolidation of the Cuban Socialist Revolution is the fact that it is already entering its fifth year of triumphant development.

"'We are for peace,' said Major Fidel Castro, 'but if we are attacked we are going to fight them with everything we have.'

"He added later: 'And the solidarity of the socialist camp has been an effective weapon against imperialist aggression. In that guarantee we do believe, in the guarantee given us by two things: our readiness to fight to the last man and the solidarity of the socialist camp. But we do not believe in the words of the imperialists.'

"He also stated: 'Our task is to unite, within and without...to struggle for the unity, on the basis of principles, of the socialist family, of the socialist camp. This is the line of our people.'

"In his speech, Prime Minister Fidel Castro again denounced the threats and aggressive plans of imperialism and reaffirmed the readiness of the revolutionary Cuban people to combat them.

"C A P T I O N S:

"1. Ground-to-air missiles, the most modern means of anti-aircraft defense, are applauded as they pass the main stand.

"2. A partial view of the foreign delegations invited to the celebration of the fourth anniversary.

"3. Several women's militia detachments parade in perfect formation.

Re: The January 2 Military Parade

- "13. A general view of the mass rally held in the Plaza de la Revolucion of Havana on the occasion of the fourth anniversary of the Cuban Revolution.

RE: FOREIGN POLITICAL MATTERS - CUBA

CONGRESSO CONTINENTAL DE SOLIDARIEDADE A CUBA
(Continental Congress for Solidarity with Cuba)
(CCSC)

The Portuguese language daily newspaper, "O Estado de Sao Paulo", published at Sao Paulo, Brazil, in its edition of February 5, 1963, contained an article which stated that the Organizacao Agraria Interamericana (InterAmerican Agrarian Organization) (IAO) in Mexico qualified the CCSC, which is to take place in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, in March 1963, as a "red conspiracy in America". The IAO appealed to rural inhabitants of the continent not to attend this reunion.

The IAO, according to the article, stated that the purpose of the CCSC is solely "to establish agreements to organize popular forces throughout America for the purpose of aiding the first continental socialist revolution and accelerating the advent of oligarchies which will be called, as in Cuba, 'Government of National Liberation, Popular, Democratic and Progressive'". The IAO, the article continued, said that the organizers of this reunion concede special importance to the fact that a great number of Latin American countries are holding elections this year, which will offer a major field for Castro propaganda. The IAO warned that the subversive movements which have occurred lately in various American countries, as in Peru, Venezuela and Columbia, are tied to the propaganda of Fidel Castro, "which incites revolutions in the entire continent by means of the so-called movements of national liberation".

Continuing, the article declared that the Communist journal, "El Popular" ("The People") (of Montevideo, Uruguay), stated on the previous day that the following are among the people who would participate in the CCSC:
